

How do you want Richmond to look and feel in 2037?

Provide your thoughts at your convenience!

From Sept. 23 to Nov. 3, the City would like you to review the Richmond 300 Master Plan work that has been underway and get your thoughts. Provide your thoughts in one of four methods:

Attend a Richmond 300 Forum

Each Forum will include a 30-min presentation and 60-min of Q&A and open house.

Oct 3, 6-7:30 PM Huguenot HS (7945 Forest Hill Ave.)

Oct 8, 6-7:30 PM Broad Rock Elementary School Cafetorium (4615 Ferguson Ln.)

Oct 9, 6-7:30 PM Main Library (101 E. Franklin St.)

Oct 22, 6-7:30 PM Police Training Academy (1202 W. Graham Rd.)

Oct 23, 6-7:30 PM Mary Munford Elementary School Auditorium (211 Westmoreland Ave.)

Oct 29, 6-7:30 PM Patrick Henry School of Science and Arts Auditorium (3411 Semmes Ave.)

Oct 30, 6-7:30 PM Martin Luther King Jr. Middle School Auditorium (1000 Mosby St.)

All Forums will present the same information. Children are welcome to attend. Spanish-language translators will be available. If participants have a disability that requires accommodation, email richmond300@richmondgov.com by Sept. 23.

Stop by a Richmond 300 Sharing Session

Come anytime during a 2-hour window for informal conversations with planners at community spots like libraries, coffee shops, and more (see richmond300.com for a full schedule).

Invite us to your meeting

Email richmond300@richmondgov.com to request a talk. We'll only need 5 minutes on your agenda. We'd like your meeting to have at least 15 attendees and occur sometime between Sept. 23 and Nov. 3.

Review materials online anytime

A survey and interactive maps will be live Sept. 23 to Nov. 3 at richmond300.com/share.

Richmond 300: A Guide for Growth is the name of the new city-wide Master Plan, which is under development.
richmond300.com 804-646-6310
richmond300@richmondgov.com

How do you want Richmond to look and feel in 2037?

Provide your thoughts at your convenience!

From Sept. 23 to Nov. 3, the City would like you to review the Richmond 300 Master Plan work that has been underway and get your thoughts. Provide your thoughts in one of four methods:

Attend a Richmond 300 Forum

Each Forum will include a 30-min presentation and 60-min of Q&A and open house.

Oct 3, 6-7:30 PM Huguenot HS (7945 Forest Hill Ave.)

Oct 8, 6-7:30 PM Broad Rock Elementary School Cafetorium (4615 Ferguson Ln.)

Oct 9, 6-7:30 PM Main Library (101 E. Franklin St.)

Oct 22, 6-7:30 PM Police Training Academy (1202 W. Graham Rd.)

Oct 23, 6-7:30 PM Mary Munford Elementary School Auditorium (211 Westmoreland Ave.)

Oct 29, 6-7:30 PM Patrick Henry School of Science and Arts Auditorium (3411 Semmes Ave.)

Oct 30, 6-7:30 PM Martin Luther King Jr. Middle School Auditorium (1000 Mosby St.)

All Forums will present the same information. Children are welcome to attend. Spanish-language translators will be available. If participants have a disability that requires accommodation, email richmond300@richmondgov.com by Sept. 23.

Stop by a Richmond 300 Sharing Session

Come anytime during a 2-hour window for informal conversations with planners at community spots like libraries, coffee shops, and more (see richmond300.com for a full schedule).

Invite us to your meeting

Email richmond300@richmondgov.com to request a talk. We'll only need 5 minutes on your agenda. We'd like your meeting to have at least 15 attendees and occur sometime between Sept. 23 and Nov. 3.

Review materials online anytime

A survey and interactive maps will be live Sept. 23 to Nov. 3 at richmond300.com/share.

Richmond 300: A Guide for Growth is the name of the new city-wide Master Plan, which is under development.
richmond300.com 804-646-6310
richmond300@richmondgov.com

