

Come to the Manchester Parking Meeting!

Thursday, June 14, 6:30 - 8:30P.M.
Plant Zero Event Space Zero E. 4th St.

Meeting Objectives:

1. Share the parking data collected;
2. Document community member's parking concerns; and
3. Discuss the process to assess future demand and create parking recommendations.

This meeting in June is the first of two public meetings about the Parking Study. At the second meeting, which will be in October 2018 (exact date TBD), we will discuss parking policy recommendations.

If you cannot attend this June meeting but still want to learn about the Parking Study, contact us at richmond300@richmondgov.com or 646-6348. You can also attend Office Hours from 3-5P.M. on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month at City Hall (900 E. Broad St, Room 511).

As part of the city-wide Master Plan update, the City is commissioning this Parking Study to review parking conditions in seven areas. Join the Richmond 300 email list to get updates about the Parking Study and the Master Plan update process at richmond300.com
